AT THE 'VILLE.

Forty-six Children Instructively En.

Mrs. W. L. Guild, president of the Congregational Ladies Aid Society entertained the children who attend that church, at the vestry last Saturday afternoon. Forty-six children were present. and behaved like little gentlemen and ladies. They gave a short literary entertainment as follows: Song, Bruce Wakeheld; reading, Marguerite Robinson; dialogue, by seven children dressed in costume: Maude Hurst, as a little missionary from America, in an apt little poem, offered the Bible to the children of the different nations. These were, Karl Davis, Indian; Dean Pearl, Icelander; Gilhert Campbell, negro; Misses Claire Le-Bourveau, Geneva Wilmot and Mabel akley took, respectively, the part of a apanese lady, Hindoo widow, and Chiese lady. Their suits were very pretty and very appropriate, and all gave their ocems well. After accepting the Bible, Miss Hurst presented each with an American flag. We hope the piece may repeated at some of our concerts. Mrs. A L. Finney then gave a short talk to the children on "Mission work among the city children, grumbling, and children's temptations." Refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, cookies, cake, tem made and orangeade, were served by Mrs. Guild, assisted by Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Davis, and Mrs. Hunter. Mrs. Pearl took charge of the games, and the children spent an hour very merrily. It would be a good plan to have an occasion like this occur annually.

Reception for Robert Child.

A reception was given Robert A. Child at the home of Mrs. Jennie Powers, Tuesday evening, March 4th. The members of the M. E. choir of which he has been a member for many years and Rev. H. G. McGlauflin's Sunday school class of only invited guests. The evening was very ple, santly spent with games and music, and Rev. H. G. McGlauffin in well chosen words presented Mr. Child with a beautiful easy chair as a token of their esteem. Nice refreshments were served. It is with much sorrow that we part from Mr. and Mrs. Child and their two little boys. Mr. Child bas been very taithful in church work, and as a member of the choir it will be hard to fill his place. He has served as one of the official board of the church and is now assistant superintendent of the Sunday school. He leaves this week Saturday for his new home. The best wishes of est of friends follow him

Mrs. Burdette Couldn't Come.

The Woman's Club planned to give a reception to Mrs. Robert Burdette last Friday afternoon between five and six at the home of Mrs. G. M. Campbell. On spend much of their time in the pine account of illness Mrs. Burdette was obliged to remain in Boston, and could not be present. That the hour might, however, be spent in a pleasant way, has to cross one of these lakes in boats notwithstanding the disappointment in | to reach a railroad station. not meeting Mrs. Burdette, the ladies sent a messenger to the home of Mrs. J. S. Schofield, to invite the Shakespeare Club, who were meeting there that aftersoon, to spend the hour with them. This invitation was accepted, and a pleasant time was enjoyed by the members of both brilliant events that have marked the Lyndonville social season this winter, occurred at the home of Col. and Mrs. H. E. Folsom, Thursday evening. The invitations mentioned a conference of cities as the order of the evening and this feature proved very interesting and entertaining. The guests were received by Col. and Mrs. Folsom and Fred Folsom. Cards were distributed bearing the names of about 90 cities each of which was represented by a guest. About two hours was devoted to the contest. P. L. Clark won the first prize. and Mrs. E W. Hutchins the second. llowing this refreshments were served. Mrs. S. M. Folsom of Bellows Falls, poured cocoa, Mrs. E. W. Hutchins, coffee, and Mrs. J. C. Schofield served ice cream. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, with Mrs. Kate Gilman Brock of St. Johnsbury as pianist. The Burdette Lecture

The lecture "Rainbow Chasers" by Robert L. Burdette last Friday evening was fully up to the high standard which has made the course this year a success. While the people were highly entertained during the two bours Mr. Burdette was speaking, the lecture furnished much food for thought after they returned to their homes. This lecture cannot fail to make the people who heard it get more out of life than they would otherwise | Bullard of that place. have done.

BOSTON MARKETS.

Boston, March 3 .- Butter continues rather quiet, with the tone of the market easy. Still, prices are very little changed. Extra creamery, small pkgs, 29@29%c; northern fresh, round lots, 28@29c; western, 28@281/2c; eastern, 28 @28½c; June extra, 23½@24½c; dairles, 22½@24c; firsts, 23½@24c; ladles, 15@ 19c; jobbers, 1/2c to 1c more.

Cheese is very steady, with the supply in strong hands. The idea is that there will be no more than enough to last till the season of new cheese. Round lots, 11%@12%e; sage, 12%@ 131/e; jobbing, 1/4 le higher.

Eggs have fluctuated widely, and closed the week higher, with stronger quotations, but nobody wants any on hand. Dealers prefer to let the trade hunt around a little for their necessities in the way of eggs to holding stock on hand to make a loss on when they go down again, as they are almost sure to do under mild weather. Fresh western, 31@32c; eastern, 31@32c; nearby and fancy, 38@40c and up; jobbing, le to 115c higher. Beans are in moderate request, at about steady prices. Apples have ruled rather quiet, under unfavorable weather conditions. The supply of export apples dropped into this market because of the fact that the market abroad was too low to ship to. Still, prices have shown little change. Fancy Baldwins, $4.25@4.75; ordinary to good, $3.25@3.75; greenings, $3.75@4.50; Kings, $4.25@5.50; Tolman sweets, $3@3.75; No. 2, all varieties, $2.75@3.25; mixed lots, $3.25@ 3.75; very choice and jobbing lots, 50c@

Cranberries are pretty firm and quoted at $7.50@10 for bbis, with crts at $2.50@3. Strawberries are coming forward more freely, while the quality is not as satisfactory as it might be, many of the berries being green and sour. For the week 26 refrigerators of strawberries were received; same week a year ago, 54 refrigerators. They sold at 40@50c per bx in refrigerator lots. At retail they are selling at 25c to 50c per bx, according to quality and size of boxes. Potatoes have shown a little firmer position and a little better trade. They are quoted at: Green mountains, 8360 85c; Hebrons, 80/a82c; rose, 78/a80c; Dakotas, 72/a75c; P. E. I. Chenangoes, 73@75c per bu; magnums, $2@2.15 per bg; Belgians, $1.80@1.90; Jersey sweet, $3.75@4 per bbl; Vinelands, $4.25@4.50.

Onions are still firm and high. Native barrels, choice, are quoted at $4@5, with some cheaper stock at less. Valencia cases are quoted at $4. Havanas are quoted at $2.50@2.75; Spanish, small crates, $1.75.

Beef is dull and rather easy, although the west has apparently been firmer, Lambs are a little firmer, after having ruled rather easy. Muttons are well held, with the supply rather light just at present. Veals are most steady, although the season of plenty is close at hand. Lambs, 81/2/10e; fancy and Brightons, 9@10%c; yearlings, 0@9c; muttons, 7@0c; fancy, 7%@9%c; veals, 9%@10%c; fancy and Brightons, 10%@

Poultry is in fair supply, with the request moderate. Prices are pretty steady. Western turkeys, 16@18c; fresh native chickens, 16@18c; western, 12@15c; fresh fowls,

A story is being told in the London clubs about King Edward. A discussion once arose among a circle of his intimate friends as to how they would each meet a sudden reverse of fortune. One of them turned to the Prince-it was before his accession-and said: "If the monarchy was overthrown here, sir, what would you do? The prince of Wales thought or a moment, and then replied; "Well, I think I might support my family by lecturing in the United States upon how it feels to be Prince of Wales."-[Philadelphia Record.

Gen. Ballington Booth of the Voluneers of America tells a story of a Methodist prayer meeting held on the East Side during the mayoralty campaign. Josquin Miller when he first visited New York put up at the Astor House. After registering he was escorted by the bell boy to the elevator and ushered in. Miller supposed he was in his room. Closing the door the boy remained, much to Miller's astonishment, and he said; You go with this 100m?" "Yes, sir," replied the boy, not understanding his inquiry. "Well!" exclaimed the longhaired poet of the Sierras, "the room is too small for two, and the sooner you get out the better."
